RALPH CHIEF CONTRIBUTOR TO GEORGE J. LONG'S TOTAL

The respected master of Bashford Manor Stud, George J. Long, developed a capital two-year-old last fall in the Sempronius colt, Ralph. This colt was slow in ripening into his true form, but developed into such a star in September and October that he went into winter quarters victor over such as Little Nephew, Bringhurst, Black Toney, Hodge and other good ones of lesser note. Such an impression did his late racing make that it was reported the healthy sum for these days of $20,000 was offered for him and refused. Italph was Mr. Long's principal money earner, but his two fillies, Semprite and Celesta, raced quite well for him, Semprite showing a high order of speed in some of her races and being likely to prove a good one in the handleaps of the approaching new year. His Sir Huon colt, Harry L., was a disappointment and did not race up to his private reputation. He may make amends next year. Mr. Long breeds his own racers and, in the matter of their stable earnings, did better than in 1912, when his total was $9,281. His stable record for this year is:

MAYBERRY TO TRAIN BILLINGS HORSES.

New York, December 29.—J. P. Mayberry has been engaged to train the horses of Frederick Johnson and C. K. G. Billings next year. The engagement came as a Christmas gift to the trainer, who had been superseded by Dr. Tanner, the trotting manager of Mr. Billings, when Mr. Billings and Mr. Johnson formed a partnership to race next year.

Dr. Tanner has not been in the best of health and decided that he would be unable to fulfill the duties. Mr. Johnson did not look any further than his old trainer and the job was tendered to Mayberry on Christmas day. There were no horses sent to the post in better condition last season than those handled by Mayberry. At Saratoga he had Cock o' the Walk in superb fettle and after winning the important handicaps, there was talk of a match with Rock View to decide which was the best horse of the year. Mayberry was willing to send his horse out in a special race at the end of the meeting at the Spa, but Sam Hildreth declared that Rock View was not in condition and the match felthrough, The advent of Mr. Billings to the sport of thoroughbred racing will mean an increase in the number of horses that Mayberry will have charge of next season.

The thoroughbreds in the string are now at Belmont Park in the care of Louis. Strabe, the stable foreman. There are fourteen in the lot, which includes a number of yearlings that are well advanced, It is the intention to ship some of the youngsters to Charleston for the early juvenile races there, but the stable will not put its best foot forward until racing is opened in New York.

Both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Billings have been liberal nominators for the various stakes that have already been closed, and it is a racing establishment that is sure to make a good showing during the coming season. Cock o' the Walk is still in the stable and he will doubtless be one of the chief handlean dependencies, though his record is such that he will undoubtedly have to carry big weights. The year-ings that are being fitted are all fashionably bred and comprise a wonderfully good looking assortment,

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

The principal change produced by last week's racing among the thirty leading American jockeys was the advancement of J. McTaggart to fourth place, in which position he probably will finish the year. Buxton, the leader, piloted six winners during the week and now has a considerable lead. The record of the thirty leaders from January 1, to and including the racing of Saturday last, is as follows: Mts. 1st. 2d. 3d. Unp. P.C.L.W.

Sons of Rock Sand will necessarily be in demand and, breeders who find Tracery's fee prohibitive, should not fail to make a note of Rock Flint, as owing to its having been wisely decided to limit strictly his first season's list, the opportunity to secure a nomination will not be available for long. Only ten approved public mares will be taken, at 35 guineas each, and at this fee, when one remembers that Rock Flint was the only horse to beat Craganour as a two-year-old, it cannot be complained that the amount is anything approaching an unreasonable one. It may be contended that he was fortunate on the day he defeated Craganour at Goodwood, and possibly there was an element of lack in his favor. Even so, however, the son of Desmond and Veneration II. could not have finished far in front of him, yet there is a wide difference between the fee that will be charged for his services and that asked for Rock Flint's. That the latter was a really good colt when at his best cannot be denied, for, in addition to his Molecomb Stakes victory, he carried off the July Stakes at headquarters and the Tattersall Sale Stakes at Doncaster—the latter event being won in a common canter by four lengths. His subsequent failure in the Middle Park Plate proved only one thing, that he was far from being himself on the day, and this was further demonstrated when he ran a creditable third to Louvois and Sanquhar, to each of which he conceded three pounds for the Dewhurst Plate. As a three-year old Rock Flint made an early but solitary reappearance in the Easter Stakes at Kempton Park. How curious the record of that race now looks! Hippeastrum, taking all the allowances, won very easily for Mr. Leopold de Rothschild, but could never run again. Roseworthy gave Aboyeur seven pounds and beat him out of a place, while, on even terms, he also accounted for Rock Flint and Sanquhar, Verily, could we have foreseen that this sort of thing was to be the keynote to the season's three-year-old form we would have been better prepared for the sensations

MORE RAIN AT CHARLESTON

MUD RUNNERS CONTINUE TO BE SUITED BY PALMETTO PARK GOING.

Public Fails to Pick the Winners with Any Considerable Degree of Success-Old Ben Scores an Impressive Victory.

Charleston, S. C., December 29.—Adverse weather conditions prevailed this afternoon and detracted considerably from the sport at Palmetto Park. Rain slowed the track and was responsible for the failure of the public to pick the winners, only two favorites reading home their fields. W. G. Yanke's two-year-old, Ord Ben, running in his best form, made a show of the good band of sprinters that furnished the contest in the feature race at three-quarters. The impressive fashion in which he disposed of his older and more seasoned opponents won him many admirers and it is freely predicted that he will win the rich Palmetto Derby, to be run two months hence. Samuel R. Meyer and faris were most extensively favored for the race, but the last named retired precipitately after showing good speed to the last furlong, while Samuel R. Meyer, under hard urging, just did get up for third place. The winner, following his customary style of racing, ran behind the early leaders, but after rounding into the stretch wore them, down with ease to win by two lengths.

The mile handicap under selling conditions went to Kinmundy, with Earl of Savoy, the pacemaker, taking second place, and the favorite, Merry Ladthird. After the finish J. W. Hedrick, owner of Earl of Savoy, bid up the winner from his entered price of $600 to $1,000 and bought him.

Chas, Cannell, backed almost to the exclusion of the others in the second race, just managed to get up after a tempestuous trip to beat Belle Terre. Archie Zimmer had planned a double during the afternoon with Chas, Cannell and Ann Tilly, but the latter was beaten by a short margin by Righteasy. Ann Tilly was best and her failure was due to Mraggart's taeties in steering her extremely wide on the stretch turn. Not alone did Mr. Zimmer lose the purse and a good-sized bet, but he also lost the filly, when W. C. Weant, represented in the race by Steleiff, claimed Ann Tilly for $625.

Bill Beverley and Al Valentine dropped out of the ranks of the layers this afternoon Daingerfield, assistant secreta

Secretary Nathanson announced this afternoon the weights for the New Year Handicap. The race is at one mile and an eighth and worth $2,000. The likely starters will probably come from Samuel R. Meyer, 112; Ringling, 110; Sir John Johnson, 119; G. M. Miller, 109; Harry Lauder, 95; Donald Macdonald, 120; Prince Hermis, 108; Charlestonian, 96; Republican, 110; John Furlong, 108; Clubs, 108; Floral Park, 107.

Jockey Borel returned this morning from Norfolk, where he went to confer with Albert Simons relative to a riding engagement for the Whitney stable next season. The matter is still in abeyance.

The track was fairly firm this morning and some reditable trials were recorded, including the the tics, but of singularly different style and character. Our turf, in my opinion, is safe from any such attacks as those which have paralyzed American racing, though in saying this I am not unmindful of the necessity for combating the efforts of its enemies to damage it by side issues. Before twenty years are gone we shall have the "tote," we shall also have stipendiary stewards, our Jockey Club will still be with us; but I really do believe that it will be officially recognized in time that our racing is now so largely a business as to demand an extended system of supervision.—Robin Goodfellow in London Daily Mail.
